GENERAL MEETING

TO ALL ATTORNEYS, PARALEGALS & OTHER LEGAL PROFESSIONALS:

DATE: Thursday, November 21, 2013
TIME: 6:30 pm (Dinner served at 6:00 pm)
TOPIC: Issues in Corporate Subsidiary Management
(1.0 hour of MCLE/CLAE credit) SPEAKER:
Eunice Kim, Attorney
Jody Aoyagi, Sr. Corporate Paralegal

As companies expand into new regions, they typically need to establish subsidiaries and branch or representative offices in the countries where they do business. Most in-house legal departments have teams dedicated to the management of these subsidiaries, to ensure compliance with local laws and to enable the business. This presentation will cover the issues involved in subsidiary management, and how we manage them.

Eunice Kim is a Senior Director in the legal department at Symantec Corporation. She joined Symantec in 2004, where she has provided legal support in the areas of SEC reporting and compliance, strategic licensing, corporate governance and general corporate matters. Eunice also oversees legal support for Symantec's subsidiaries as well as legal support for various Finance functions, including procurement.

Jody Aoyagi is a Senior Corporate Paralegal at Symantec Corporation. She has been with Symantec since July 2005 when Symantec acquired VERITAS Software. Jody had been with VERITAS since January 2004. Previously, she worked at Cooley (then Cooley Godward) from March 2000 to January 2004. Jody attended UC Davis and graduated with degrees in English and History in 1999.
