

NOMINATION FOR THE 2017 JEAN M. CUSHMAN AWARD

The Jean Cushman Award was established in 2007 and is the highest honor PASCCO can confer to an extraordinary member whose contribution to the profession distinguishes not only the recipient, but also all paralegals. A recipient must meet the highest standards of professional conduct, must be a PASCCO member in good standing and must be a practicing paralegal whose accomplishments and contributions to PASCCO and the profession have made an outstanding, substantial and positive impact. The honoree's name is inscribed on a plaque and is determined by the PASCCO Award Committee from nominations submitted by PASCCO members. Nominations must be received by midnight, October 31, 2017.
